

WHAT MEMBERS SAY ABOUT THE ROCKY RIVER CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

“New to the Rocky River Chamber in 2011, I was delighted to discover so many opportunities for collaboration. The Chamber community is welcoming, innovative and dedicated to ensuring Rocky River’s economic viability in this region. I am proud to be among such great business leaders and look forward to many years of development, growth and success.” Geof Pelaia, Pelaia Media Group

“We have met many Chamber members and done flooring work in quite a few of their homes. This has led to other work for their neighbors, relatives, etc. The caliber of customers received through networking is so much higher than with other types of advertising because the potential customer gets to meet you and learn about your business, as opposed to just seeing an advertisement and taking a chance on you.”
Terry Hach, Floors 2 U

“As an independent restaurateur in Rocky River for over 25 years, my involvement with the Rocky River Chamber of Commerce has been mutually beneficial. Whether I am attending a meeting or catering an event, I always meet new people. The Chamber makes that possible, it is truly what a chamber should be. We have a lot of fun too!”
George Hwang, Pearl of the Orient

“As a new business in Rocky River, joining the Chamber was one of the best business decisions we made. We have found it to be an effective way to get plugged into the community. I appreciate the opportunities my Chamber membership gives me to interact with potential clients and new business connections.” Mark Tolson, ASAP Fitness

“Being a member of the River Chamber has been like having a great partner!” Rob Grendow, Danny Boy’s Pizza

“I have been involved in five different Chambers over my career and the Rocky River Chamber is by far the most active, friendly and group-oriented Chamber I have experienced. The staff and volunteers work hard to make every member feel welcome, to connect members and get them involved.” Marc Hustek, Howard Hanna

“I joined the Rocky River Chamber as a new business owner a few years ago. It is a professionally managed networking and business organization that affords diverse opportunities to create relationships, build business, volunteer on various committees and... have fun!”
Lori Kolenich, Speedpro Imaging

“If you want mediocre, don't join the Rocky River Chamber! I wanted a group that would really help me to springboard my expansion to northeast Ohio. Rocky River Chamber is the best of the best and I am so happy that chance took me in that direction. Every time I leave an event, I am energized both by the event and also by the people attending.”
Debby Peters, Connex Nation

“I have found the Rocky River Chamber to be a very friendly, fun and social group. More importantly, I have generated substantial business for my store as a result of networking at the many events that the Chamber offers to its members. It has been well worth the price of membership!” Ellen Todia, West Shore Wine Co.

“The Rocky River Chamber provides useful tools to help connect our business with other locals in the Rocky River area. The staff is very professional, courteous and always helpful!” Tracey Swisher, The Normandy
